TOURETTES SYNDROM & NARKOLEPSI
NR. 3/2010*

The background of the cover is a monochromatic orange-gold color. It features silhouettes of people on a rocky, uneven terrain. On the right side, a person stands on a high ridge, looking towards the right. On the left side, another person is crouching or climbing a lower rock formation. The overall mood is contemplative and challenging.

*DIAGNOSE – VELSIGNALSE
